AYER'S PILLS.

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for the cure of all Bilious diseases—Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fevers, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c., &c. Indeed, very few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required, and much sickness and suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a custive habit of body prevails; besides it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Feverish symptoms, and Bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which load the hearses all over the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing any thing hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the eminent gentlemen to whom we are allowed to refer for these facts, are

PROF. VALENTINE MOTT, the distinguished Surgeon of New York City.

DOCT. A. A. HAYES, Practical Chemist of the Port of Boston, and Geologist for the State of Massachusetts.

IRA L. MOORE, M. D., an eminent Surgeon and Physician, of the City of Lowell, who has long used them in his extensive practice.

H. C. SOUTHWICK, Esq., one of the first merchants in New York City.

C. A. DAVIS, M. D., Supt and Surgeon of the United States Marine Hospital, at Chelsea, Mass.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred such names, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing than the certificates of these eminent public men is shown in their effects upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, extracted by chemical process in a state of purity, and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities, by this each individual virtue only that is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved more purely remedial, and the Pills a surer more powerful antidote to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physicinn, and as he could not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition, I have supplied the accurate formulas by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British American Provinces. If however there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his address.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered, how few would be taken if their composition was known. Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic merits. The Cherry Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pill, and even more confidently, and are willing to certify that their anticipations were more than realized by their effects upon trial.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Being sugar wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions, see the wrapper on the Box.

THE CHEST.

SIR ASTLEY COOPER, BART., M. D.

THE EMINENT MEDICAL PRACTITIONER,

Has left a Valuable Legacy to the World, in his Great Preventative of Consumption,

AND

Unfailing Cure for Pulmonary Diseases without the use of Medicine.

Sir A. C., Bart invented and advised the use of the

MEDICATED PURCHEST PROTECTOR

FOR persons of all ages and conditions, as a certain and sure shield against those fearful diseases, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, and other Diseases of the Lungs, which arise from the exposed state of the chest, according to fashion, and the continued changes of our climate.

"The Protector" is simply a chemically prepared flannel with silk and polish, which, suspended from the neck, covers the chest in so agreeable a manner that once worn, it becomes a necessity and a comfort.

"The Protector," although but recently introduced into America, is making rapid progress through the United States, the Canadas, South America, and the West Indies. It has for a long time been a staple article in England and on the continent of Europe, while it has grown in many countries to the position of an article of dress. To demonstrate these facts, enquire of any English resident in your vicinity, of his knowledge of the beneficial effects of wearing the Protector, without recourse to doctoring of any kind.

The cost of wearing these articles is a mere trifle, and one will last some years. No one who value the health of himself or his family will be without them. The Hospitals in this country are not alone recommending them, but readily introduce them. Harcourt, Bradley & Co., of London and Manchester, England, were originally entrusted with the manufacture of the Protectors, by the lamented Dr. Cooper, and continue to manufacture according to his original instructions, and therefore recommend those who would wear the "Protectors," to see to their being genuine.

Remember this is a staple article, and no Patent Medicine.

Incidents of the Mountains for the last Fifty Years.

TUNSTALL QUARLES has been engaged for some time in writing a book the title of which will be "the incidents of the mountain for the last 50 years," dedicated to the memory of the late Joseph Eve, an honest, friend and patriotic gentleman, who resided at Barboursville, Ky., many years. The favorite of his countrymen, and in upright sensible, and kind benefactor of his region of the State. The book will contain a sketch of the distinguished individuals who has been prominent in various and varied pursuit for the last fifty and more particularly for the last twelve years. He will also give a history of the first settlers of Kentucky—and the means resorted to, to sever the Union and the acts and doings of a foreign company formed in 1776, and a proposition to purchase of the Legislature of Kentucky all the public domain belonging to it, and other miscellaneous matters. The patrons of the book will receive it at their respective Post Offices.

FRANKFORT.
THURSDAY, - OCTOBER 19, '54.

☞ In another column we publish an article from the Manchester (N. H.) True Democrat, and invite the attention of our readers to it. Though we by no means coincide with the Democrat in regard to the justice of the Nebraska Bill, yet we can not help admiring the patriotic devotion of the editor to the administration, and the humble manner in which he submits to the will of the majority of his countrymen.

We have no doubt that there is a great number of northern men, who are honest in their convictions in regard to slavery, and who are solicitous for the happiness of all. If the administration or Congress commits in their opinion an error, their denunciations generally have no limit. There would be but little danger of a dissolution of the Union, if newspaper editors and other public men were to suppress their indignation, no matter how great, at the actions of those in whose hands they have temporarily trusted their public affairs. A dissolution of the Union would be impossible without the sanction of a majority of the citizens thereof, and surely the greater portion of the people of this Republic would not advocate any principles, by which the safety of it would be threatened. Then why say that such a fate is inevitable by the passage of a bill, which is proved in numerous speeches to be constitutional; and which has been passed by a majority of our Congressmen—men whose patriotism is equal to that of any who fought for the liberties we now enjoy?

The article from the Democrat should it might have a salutary effect.

Grand Mass Meeting.

Once more we call the attention of our readers to the fact that a grand rally of the Democracy will come off upon the 26th of this month, in the vicinity of Lexington. It is time such a convocation should be had, for the genuine principles of true Democracy, which will be incorporated in the resolutions, will be a great antidote to the anti-republican sentiments, which Whigs and Abolitionists are trying to disseminate through the country. Let us all go, and have an old fashioned Democratic 'love feast.'

FIRE.—The tan-yard of Hardy & O'Hara, situated back of the Penitentiary, was entirely destroyed by fire on Monday night last. The alarm was given about half past one o'clock, and though a great number of our citizens flocked to the scene of conflagration, nothing of consequence was saved. The mill, shoe-shop, store-room, bark-house, and a good quantity of bark were consumed, and the steam engine, which was almost new, received such injuries as to render it almost worthless. The loss is about $5000—no insurance. The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

☞ We will endeavor to give a description of the Tournament in our next.

☞ We have received two very interesting letters from our Lexington and Danville correspondents, which will appear in our next.

DEATH OF JOSEPH H. MAYHALL.—We record with regret the death of Mr. JOSEPH H. MAYHALL, proprietor of the Owensboro' Gazette. He died in Owensboro' a few days ago, from injuries received by being thrown from a buggy in which he was riding. The fall produced a horrible fracture and laceration of one of his legs. Amputation was performed, but mortification nevertheless ensued and closed his life. Mr. MAYHALL was an industrious, worthy, and upright man; long a citizen of Frankfort; long connected with this office; and, indeed, almost reared in it. His many friends here receive the news of his untimely death with sincere sorrow. He leaves a wife and several young children to feel the bitter loss of husband and father.—Commonwealth.

Mr. M. was, for a short time, connected with the Yeoman office, and we cheerfully endorse everything said by the Commonwealth in regard to his character, &c.

☞ We copy from the Commonwealth of Monday week, a piece of poetry by the eastern rhymster, John G. Saxe. As our neighbor well remarks, Hood never wrote a better piece, and we commend it to the careful attention of our readers.—We never considered Saxe a profound poet, but we have always admired the pleasing single of his rhyme, and the verity of his puns. The proud Miss Mac Bride "has her followers in this place, but we suppose that in every city she can show a train of retainers.

☞ The following epitaph on a printer, which we find in one of our exchanges, is too good to be lost:

Here lies a form—place no imposing stone
To mark the bed where weary it is laid:
'Tis matter dead!—its mission all being done—
To be distributed to dust again.
The body's but the type of best of man,
Whose impress is the spirit's deathless page;
Worn out, the type is thrown to print again—
The impression lives through an eternal age.

The Administration.

The administration has been assailed with extraordinary virulence for the last few months, not only by the opposition proper, but by many of whom better things might once have been expected. Yet, if we look at its public acts,—the Nebraska Bill aside, upon which honest men differed—all will admit that they have been in exact accordance with the Baltimore Platform and the pledges of the campaign. Suppose we insist that this one measure shall be considered an exception, (contrary to the sentiments of a majority of the Democratic party, to which some deference is due,)—what then? Is it either wise or just to denounce an administration in gross for one error of detail? We think not; and if the truth could be known, we suspect it would appear that those quasi Democrats who have bolted their party organization upon this pretext, were very glad that a pretext presented itself, by which they could disguise the real cause of their discontent.

No man who has observed with any degree of care, the perils connected with the dispensation of patronage under former administrations could reasonably hope that one of so many friends as this, could altogether escape them. We were never so sanguine as that; and the result very soon justified our apprehensions. Long before the Nebraska Bill was thought of—even before any public act was done—the Democracy of certain sections began to be restive upon this momentous question of patronage; and in some places—New York especially—it was obvious a fatal schism must occur upon this basis. The appointments were made, however, and upon a principal which received almost universal assent, as judicious and wise. That some errors in detail should occur, was inevitable; but the appointments were so generally satisfactory to the country, that malcontents found no great encouragement to grumble.

Then came the Nebraska Bill. For one—and we think we may speak for all Anti-Nebraska Democrats whom we personally know—we opposed that measure in its origin, not from enmity to the administration, but from a sincere conviction that it would lead to embarrassment and danger, which we were most anxious to avert. None of us had any griefs to avenge; and the passage or defeat of that measure could not affect our relations to the administration, nor diminish our solicitude for its success. This is not the case everywhere. On the contrary, we have too much evidence that multitudes of men are willing to avail themselves of this pretext to expectorate their personal spleen against the administration, because they lament of some eagerly-coveted appointment. We are sorry they have any such pretext; for, upon the true issue, nobody is so thoroughly powerless and contemptible as a disappointed office-seeker.

Every Anti-Nebraska Democrat who desires the success and glory of the administration, can find enough to admire and commend. Indeed, if he will trace its whole career, he will find no other act inconsistent with its own pledges, or the illustrious precedents it was expected to follow. And it has not been idle. So far from it, it has done more in the few months of its power, to adjust our foreign relations and our domestic policy, than any late preceding administration has accomplished during its entire term. Take these acts in detail, and where is one which fails to command the approbation of reflecting men? The truth is, the over-riding prominence of the Nebraska question has been permitted to obscure a thousand acts which ought to, and ultimately will, make up the character of this administration. They who suppose it is to be judged by one measure—and that of fictitious importance—will find their mistake when the dust of excitement shall clear away, and leave the whole political landscape in view. In proportion as the Nebraska question recedes in public interest, other matters will assume the prominence to which they are justly entitled; and it will be found that the administration is not only strong, but absolutely invulnerable, in the general management of our foreign and domestic affairs. This fact is practically admitted by the almost exclusive attention paid by the opposition to Nebraska.

We are prepared to say more. Without any change in our own opinions in regard to one feature of the Nebraska Bill, we have no doubt that very measure, now so violently denounced, is destined to be popular. Why should it not be? It was generally opposed because as was alleged, it would extend slavery. Suppose it precipitates the extension of freedom—what then? There must, and there will, be a backing down on the part of those whose political act is based upon this slavery question. We beg leave to remind our Fusion friends, therefore, that the administration may yet rally on the very issue they have made against it—and with a chance of success proportioned to the probability that Kansas and Nebraska will both be free—which we believe is even now certain beyond all contingencies. The friends of the Nebraska Bill claim that it was necessary, in order to remove the slavery question from Congress. Without admitting this, we yet sympathize most fully in the motive alleged; and the whole conservative sentiment of the country will ultimately co-operate with any party, and support any administration which will be faithful to this object. General Pierce is a 'well abused' man, just now; but a day of triumph is at hand.

Railway Sketches.

The New York Courier & Enquirer has for a few issues past, contained some excellent articles upon railway matters, under the name of Railway Sketches. Below we give the third one:

A week or two since, on one of the great roads in our State, while the switch tender, whose house was at the extremity of a bridge on the track, was at dinner, his little boy mentioned to him that the bridge "didn't look right." He glanced at it, and the precise angle seemed swerved. He went to it and found that the timber beneath had broken. This quickness of observation on the part of the boy, saved the company a fearful loss, and the accident columns of the press a sad item. By an impropriety of movement, against the occurrence of which guard should have been taken two heavy trains had been driven over it in different directions, at the same time, and the timbers just equal to the task of bringing both over safely expended all their energies in that. The load once over the fibres of the wood yielded, and the next roll over would have been to ruin. There was no time for long delay at that dinner. The trains would be rolling along at their precise minute, and the engineer did not think of checking his speed for switch or bridge. But signals given, and track master summoned, and a busy gang of hands immediately at work, and by the force of abundant and well-directed labor, the transit was soon safely made.

It was one of the great number of escapes from danger which the annals of management of a railway train are continually furnishing—and the occurrence of which quicken to intensity the sagacity of those whose vocation it is to see that either wood or iron be faltering in their duty.

I have been told by an engineer that after a hard day's service in winter, in endeavoring to force the locomotive through snow, or other work where his labor was for prolonged, he has fallen asleep on his engine! He said his mind did not sleep. The running of the train never left his thought; nor did the recurrence of the proper stoppages escape him. He would wake to give the signal, but would, as soon as the roll of the wheel recommenced, yield to humanity's great restorer. His fireman would vigorously throw in the wood, then set himself up on the box, and be asleep in a time so brief that that part of his experience, at least, many of us might envy. This place of slumber, it is to be hoped, is not often chosen; for while attaching all credit to the belief that my engineer friend was mentally awake, the dream of duty might soon pass away beneath the deep oblivion of exhausted nature.

The switch, in this railway day, is far more a terror to manhood than in the severest days of old fashioned semi-savage schoolmaster, its namesake, was to the offender. It is the minute before the locomotive comes in sight of that white and black signal board, whose position at once indicates whether the rail is in perfect line by the proper and accurate set of the switch; it is at this moment that the heart of the engineer sinks within him. In comfortable seats we hear a click extraordinary, as our car goes over the place, and perhaps the jar flings some pretty neighbors into your arms. To us the passage of the switch is rather agreeable, a rose leaf of incident suddenly thrown across our dreariness, but the glance at the signal reveals to the engineer either safety or a terrible leap for life, if indeed, this faint chance even is given him.

If set wrong, it is an error, a terrible error not then to be amended. The strength of fearful motion is in the engine, and perhaps it may not be safe even to whistle for the brake, as it could not bring the locomotive up, and the sound would only call the breakman to most imminent peril on the platforms. Men have talked about self-acting switches, but an engineer who realizes wisely what a climate is ours, with its contractions and expansions by frost and scorching sun, would never move his engine beyond a cat's walking place, up to a switch, the safety of which depended on a spring or a cog. It is said to be bad to be a one-idead man, but that character is precisely the one valuable and reliable, in the responsible duty of attending the switch. One of our lively Americans would be planning in the interval all manner of improvements in locomotion, and day and night rouse to his routine only when the engine is upon him. The duty is performed but at intervals in the day. Long hours of leisure intervene, but at the minute, morn or night, he must be there. If he be not, desolation and disaster will be.

WHISKEY AND NEWSPAPERS.—A glass of whisky is manufactured from perhaps a dozen grains of mashed corn, the value of which is too small to be estimated. A pint of this mixture sells at retail at one shilling, and of a good brand, it is considered by its consumers well worth the money. It is drank off in a minute or two—it fires the brain—rouses the passion—sharpens the appetite—deranges and weakens the physical system: it is gone—and swollen eyes, parched lips, and an aching head are its followers. On the same sideboard upon which this is served, lies a newspaper, the new white paper of which cost three-fourths of a cent—the composition for the whole edition costing from ten to fifteen dollars per day. It is covered with half a million of types, it brings intelligence from the four quarters of the globe—it has in its clearly printed columns all that is strange or new at home—it tells you the state of the market—gives accounts of the last elopement, the execution of the last murderer—and the latest steamboat explosion or railroad disaster—and yet for all this, the newspaper costs less than the glass of grog—the juice of a few grains of corn. It is no less strange than true, that there is a large portion of the community who thinks the corn juice cheap and the newspaper dear, and the printer has hard work to collect his dimes, when the liquor dealers are paid cheerfully.

How is this? Is the body a better paymaster than the head, and are things of the moment more prized than things of eternity? Is the transient tickling of the stomach of more consequence than the improvement of the soul, and the information that is essential to a rational being? If this had its real value, would not the newspaper be worth many pints of whiskey?—Forest City.

HE WAS A STRANGER TO HER.—We heard of a young married couple, from the country of course, who attended an exhibition of "Dissolving Views." The bride, being pretty, attracted the attention of a stylish-looking city gent, who happened to occupy the same seat with the twain. During the exhibition the audience part of the Hall being already obscured, by some accident the light was entirely extinguished.—Pending its recovery, which occupied some little time, the city gentlemen (perhaps accidentally) generally pressed the hand of the bride, who was too much alarmed to offer resistance. This bold act followed by a bolder, certainly not accidental, for the city Lothario absolutely kissed the bride. This was too much, and the young wife resolved to tell her husband, which she did, when the following whispered coloquy took place.

"John?"

"What?"

"This feller here's kissing me."

"Well, (said John, who was a little shy of the city-n) tell him to quit!"

"No, John; you tell him,"

"Tell him yourself."

"No, John I don't like to; you tell him. The gentleman's a perfect stranger to me!"

Our informant did not know whether the "city gentleman" ultimately received a "notice to quit," or not; but was under the impression that the unlawful salutes were repeated several times before the lamps were re-lighted.

The bride must have been deliciously unsophisticated; dont you think so.—Worcester Transcript.

The Germans have produced some very excellent remedies for various diseases. Among which may be specified "Dr. Hoofland's celebrated bitters," for sale by C. M. Jackson—and used with remarkable success in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and a general derangement of the stomach. The Sunday Despatch says of this medicine:—

"We feel convinced, that in the use of the German Bitters the patient does not become debilitated, but constantly gains strength and vigor to the frame—a fact worthy of great consideration. The Bitters are pleasant in taste and in smell, and can be administered under any circumstances, to the most delicate stomach. Indeed they can be used by all persons with the most perfect safety. It would be well for those who are much affected in the nervous system, to commence with one teaspoonful or less, and gradually increase. We speak from experience, and are, of course, a proper judge. The press far and wide, have united in commending the German Bitters, and to the afflicted we most cordially advise their use."

An infallible Remedy for Bile, Jaundice, and Liver Complaints, Holloway's Pills.—Extract from a letter from Jane Jenkins, of Apalachicola, Florida, to Professor Holloway.—"I suffered for seven months from jaundice and bile, arising from a very disordered state of the liver, during this time, although I tried many remedies I obtained no relief for my sufferings. At length, I purchased a quantity of your Pills, and after using five boxes, I was perfectly cured, and with confidence recommend them to others who are thus afflicted."

AFFLICTED READ!!

PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE.—Established 20 years ago by Dr. KINKELIN, corner of Third and Union sts., between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, Pa

INVALIDS

Are apprised that Dr. KINKELIN confines his practice to a particular branch of Medicine, which engages his undivided attention. He cautions the unfortunate against the abuse of mercury; thousands are annually mercurialized out of life. Recent affections are promptly extinguished

TWENTY YEARS EXPERIENCE.

In the treatment of a class of disease hitherto neglected and imperfectly understood, has enabled Dr. KINKELIN, (Author of a work on Self Preservation) to prove that nine tenths of the causes of nervous debility local and constitutional weakness, mental and physical suffering, are traceable to certain habits, forming the most secret yet deadly and fatal springs of domestic misery and premature mortality.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There is an evil habit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood, and which, if not reformed in due time, not only begets serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise to a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections. Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and uncommutable feelings, and vague fears in the mind.

The unfortunate thus affected becomes feeble, is unable to labor with accustomed vigor, or to apply his mind to study: his step is tardy and weak, he is dull, irresolute, and engages in his sport with less energy than usual.

If he emancipate himself before the practice has done its worst, and enter matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early follies. These are considerations which should awaken the attention of those similarly situated.

MARRIAGE

Requires the fulfilment of several conditions, in order that it may be really the cause of mutual happiness. Could the veil which covers the origin of domestic wretchedness be raised, and its true source in every instance disclosed—in how many could it be traced to physical disqualifications and their attendant disappointment! Apply them while it is yet time, in order to have your unstrung and relaxed organization refreshed, revivified and strengthened.

REMEMBER

He who places himself under Dr. KINKELIN'S treatment may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and rely upon the assurance, that the secrets of Dr. K's patients will never be disclosed.

Young man—let no false modesty deter you from making your case known to one who from education and respectability, can certainly befriend you.

Too many think they will conceal the secret in their own hearts, and cure themselves. Alas! how often is this a fatal delusion, and how many a promising young man, who might have been an ornament to society, has faded from the earth.

Strictures of the urethra are rapidly removed by the application of a new therapeutical agent, used only by Dr. K. Weakness and constitutional debility promptly cured, and full vigor restored.

COUNTRY INVALIDS

Can have (by stating their case explicitly, together with all their symptoms, per letter enclosing a remittance) Dr. K.'s medicine, appropriated accordingly.

The Tri-Weekly Yeoman

ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.

The Baltic arrived at New York last evening with Liverpool dates of the 4th.

Sales of cotton for three days, 38,000 bales; Orleans fair 6¼, middling 5½; upland fair 6, middling 5⅛; sales to speculators 8,000 and exporters 6,000 bales.

Brown & Shipley quote cotton advanced ⅛; sales of three days 30,000 bales.

Flour—Western canal 31s; Ohio 34s. Corn—yellow and white 39s. Consols 95⅛@95⅝.

In consequence of the unfavorable reports of the growing crop and the victories in the Crimea, Richardson quotes breadstuffs quiet; sales for retail of good at firm prices; inferior a trifle easier.

McMakin quotes corn advanced to 12s.

McIlenry quotes bacon unchanged in every respect. Cheese wanted. Lard and tallow dull. Rice—nothing doing.

The Baltic spoke and boarded the British schr. John Clements cruising for the missing boats belonging to the Arctic, off Cape Race.

The U. S. steamer San Jacinto put back to Southampton, her machinery being deranged. She will be detained five or six weeks for repairs.

There has been a great battle in the Crimea, which resulted in the utter annihilation of the Russians. Ten ships of war were sunk. Sebastopol had fallen and the city is consumed. Ten thousand of the allies and 15,000 Russians were killed and 22,000 Russians were taken prisoners. One thousand guns were captured. Menschikoff, with his shattered remains, refused to surrender.

Fort Constantine was blown up on the 26th. It was invested by sea and land, and after an obstinate defence was carried by storm. The allies then bombarded the city and fleet. Ten Russian ships of the line were burned and sunk.

The remaining forts were carried one after another. Eight hundred guns were silenced and twenty-two thousand prisoners taken. The Russian loss in dead and wounded is estimated at not less than 18,000 in Sebastopol alone.

Menschikoff, with the shattered remains of his force, retired into a position in an inner harbor and threatened to fire down and blow up the remaining ships, unless the victors would grant them an honorable capitulation. The allied generals demanded his unconditional surrender, and in the name of humanity gave him six hours' consideration. The latest dispatches say that Menschikoff surrendered. The British and French flags wave over Sebastopol.

The entrenched camp of the Russians, on the heights of Alma, contained 60,000 men.

Numerous artillery and cavalry was carried at the point of the bayonet after four hours fighting.

No general officers of the British were wounded.

Marshal St. Renaud and Lord Raglan commanded in person. Gen. Thomasseu (French) is thought to be fatally wounded. Gen. Canrobert was wounded in the shoulder.

The second engagement on the plain of Kalantac lasted several hours, was very sanguinary, and ended in the total defeat of the Russians, who were pursued to the entrenchments before Sebastopol.

Dispatches state that the garrison at Sebastopol was offered a free withdrawal, but surrendered as a prisoner of war.

Dispatches are very contradictory; one dated Berlin the 31 says that a telegraph dispatch was received from St. Petersburg to the effect that Menschikoff has telegraphed, under date of Sept 26th, that he has withdrawn his troops unmolested from before Sebastopol towards Baktschi Serie, where he will await reinforcements, and adds that Sebastopol had not been attacked up to the 16th.

Russian accounts do not conceal the fact of severe reverses in the Crimea.

A dispatch from Berlin of the 29 h says the return of the French fleet from the Baltic was countermanded.

Napier was before Revel on the 23d.

Bucharest 30 h.—It is again asserted that 50,000 Russians are at Dobrudscha.

Gen Landers is constantly receiving reinforcements.

Omar Pasha is only waiting for St. Armand's orders to attack Bessarabia.

All arrangements in the Turkish army indicate the intention of a winter campaign.

The Russians are concentrating in the neighborhood of Ishumel.

Details of the Sebastopol news were not expected by the British government before the 6th.

The Turks are hastening through Bulgaria by forced marches for the sea coast.

The Austrian Ambassador at Paris called on Drouyin De l'Hays to express the satisfaction of his government at the success of the allied armies.

The St. Petersburg Journal publishes a decree prohibiting the export of corn to Austria.

The Paris correspondent of the Independance Belge says that a joint note had been sent by England and France to the cabinet of the United States requiring an explanation of the engagements entered into between the United States and Russia, especially with respect to the nature and condition of the acquisition said to to be made by the United States of Russian possessions in North America.

Eight hours after the Europa sailed came the official news of the great battle at Alma, on the river Crimea, on the 21st. The allies stormed the Russian entrenchments after four hours' fighting. The Anglo-French lost 2,800 killed and wounded and the Russians lost 6,000.

Private dispatches supply the rest of the news, namely: That the Russians, under Menschikoff, rallied on the river Katscha on the 23d and again gave battle to the allies and were again defeated and driven back to their entrenchments behind Sebastopol, when they again rallied and fought the third battle on the 24th, and were a third time defeated and fled into Sebastopol which was besieged by sea and land.

A trifling difficulty had occurred between the Turks and Montenegrans.

Prince Napoleon, it is stated, had three horses shot under him.

Dispatches via Vienna state that Menschikoff has surrendered the remainder of his fleet.

Latest—Liverpool, Wednesday.—Disturbances have broken out at Burgos, in Spain.

Nothing further is to the capture of Sabastopol, but previous accounts are confirmed.

The Turkish ambassador presented to the London Times a copy of a dispatch sent him from Constantinople. He stated that he entertained no doubt of the truth of the previous published accounts.

It is stated confidentially in Paris that General Neil has demonstrated to the Emperor the practicability of taking Cronstadt this season, and that an attempt will be immediately made.

Six Russian ships escape from Sebastopol.

One French and three Russian Generals arrived at Constantinople wounded.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16

New Orleans papers of Tuesday are received.

The total loss of life by the burning of the steamer Princess were 23. They were Mrs. Wise and child, Miss Wilson, Andy Thompson, pilot; George Borrett, first engineer; two negro women, and fifteen hands and slaves.

Total deaths at New Orleans for the week ending on the 8th 358, of which 207 were of fever.

There was three deaths at Savannah Thursday, at Charleston eight, at Augusta three.

NEW YORK, October 16.

Gibson, Stockwell & Co., commission merchants, Pearl-street, suspended to-day. It was a heavy house.

CINCINNATI, October 16.

The steamer Isabel, from New Orleans to St. Louis, struck a snag near the latter city on Thursday evening and sunk to boiler deck. She had a large and veluable cargo. No lives were lost.

MONTPELIER, Vt., October 14.

The Hon. Japez Callamore (Whig) of Woodstock, was to-day elected United States Senator for the long term by a majority of both houses of about 30, and the Hon. Lawrence Brainard, of St. Albans, Freesoiler, for the short term, receiving nearly every Whig and Freesoil vote.

Gov. Boyes's message was delivered in the forenoon. It was unusually brief, and is strongly in favor of 'prohibitory.'

BALTIMORE, October 15.

New Orleans papers of Thursday are received.

Deaths at Savannah for the week ending the 11th were 23, of fever 15. The board of health cautions residents against returning.

There were 7 deaths at Charleston on last Wednesday.

AUGUSTA, Octobar 11.

The Know Nothings at Charleston claim to have elected 7 candidates.

NEW YORK, October 17. M.

Capt, Luce arrived at his residence at Yonders, 21 miles above this city, last night. He was enthusiastically received along the route. He gives more interesting details, and thinks that more of the passengers of the ill-fated vessel have been picked up and taken to England. He praises the conduct of young Holland, who fired the signal guns, warmly. He saw C. B. Rengoe, of Cincinnati, on deck, when the vessel was going down. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick were close to him when the waves engulphed him. He says that the smallest boat which left the ship, with the engineer, was capable of carrying more than the largest boat, and that they took away boats enough to carry 300 safely.

COLUMBIA, S. C., October 14.

Messrs. Aiken, Keitt, Boyce, Orr, and McQueen have been elected to Congress in this State—all State Rights.

There is probably a majority in the lower branch of the Legislature in favor of giving the election of Presidential electors to the people.

THE PROUD MISS MAC BRIDE.

A LEGEND OF GOTHAM.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

O terribly proud was Miss Mac Bride,
The very personification of pride,
As she minced along in fashion's tide,
Adown Broadway—on the proper side—
When the golden sun was setting.
There was pride in the head she carried so high,
Pride in her lip, and pride in her eye,
And a world of pride in the very sigh
That her stately bosom was fretting.

A sigh that a pair of elegant feet,
Sandalled in satin, should kiss the street—
The very same that the vulgar greet,
In common leather, not over neat'—
For such is the common blotting;
(And Christian tears may well be shed,
That even among our gentlemen bred,
The glorious Day of Morocco is dead,
And Day & Martin are reigning instead,
On a much inferior footing.)

O terribly proud was Miss Mac Bride.
Proud of her beauty, and proud of her pride,
And proud of fifty matters beside,
That would'nt have borne dissection;
Proud of her wit, and proud of her walk,
Proud of her teeth, and proud of her talk,
Proud of 'knowing cheese from chalk,'
On a very slight inspection.

Proud abroad, and proud at home,
Proud wherever she chanced to come—
When she was glad, and when she was glum;
Proud as the head of a Saracen
Over the door of a tipping shop!—
Proud as the Duchess, proud as a fop,
Proud as a boy with a 'rain new top.'
Proud beyond comparison!

It seems a singular thing to say—
But her very senses led her astray,
Respecting all humanity;
In truth, her dull auricular drum
Could find in humble only a 'hum,'
And heard no sound of 'gentle!' come,
In talking about gentility.

What lowly meant she didn't know,
For she always avoided 'everything low,'
With care the most punctilious;
And quested still, the audible sound
Of 'super silly' she ne'er had found
In the adjective supercilious!

The meaning of meek she never knew,
But imagined the phrase had something to do
With 'Moses,' a peddling German Jew,
Who, like all hawkers, the country through,
Was a 'person of no position.'
And it seemed to her exceedingly plain,
If the world was really known to pertain
To a vulgar German, it wasn't germane
To a lady of high condition!

Even her graces—not her grace,
For that was in the 'vocative case'—
Chilled with a touch of her icy face,
Sat very stiffly upon her!
She never confessed a fact aloud,
Like one of the simple common crowd,
But coldly smiled, and tamely bowed—
As one should say: 'You do me proud,
And do yourself an honor!'

And yet the pride of Miss Mac Bride,
Although it had fifty hobbies to ride,
Had really no foundation;
But like the fabric that gossips thus—
Those single stories that often arise,
And grow till they reach a four story size—
Was merely a fancy creation!

'Tis a curious fact as ever was known,
In human nature, but often shown
Alike in castle and cottage,
That pride, like pigs of certain breed,
Will manage to live and thrive on 'feed'
As poor as a pauper's pottage!

That her wit should never have made her vain,
Was—like her face—sufficiently plain;
And, as to her musical powers,
Although she sang until she was hoarse,
And issued notes with a banker's force,
They were just such notes as we never endorse
For any acquaintance of ours.

Her birth, indeed, was uncommonly high—
For Miss Mac Bride first opened her eye
Through a sky-light dim, on the light of the sky;
But pride is a curious passion—
And taking about her wealth and worth,
She always forgot to mention her birth
To people of rank and fashion!

Of all the notable things on earth,
The queerest one is pride of birth,
Among our 'fierce Democracie!'
A bridge across a hundred years,
Without a prop to save it from sneers—
Not even a couple of rotten Peers—
A thing for laughter, fleers, and jeers,
Is American aristocracy!

English and Irish, French and Spanish,
German, Italian, Dutch and Danish,
Crossing their veins until they vanish
In one conglomeration!
So subtle a tangle of blood, indeed,
No heraldry-Harvey will ever succeed
In finding the circulation!

Depend upon it, my snobbish friend,
Your family thread you can't ascend,
Without good reason to apprehend
You may find it waxed at the farthar end,
By some plebeian vocation!
Or, worse than that, your boasted line
May end in a loop of stronger twine
That plagued some worthy relation!

But Miss Mac Bride had something beside
Her lofty birth to nourish her pride—
For rich was the old paternal Mac Bride,
According to public rumor;
And he lived 'up town,' in a splendid square,
And kept his daughter on dainty fare,
And gave her gems that were rich and rare,
And the finest rings and things to wear,
And feathers enough to plume her!

An honest mechanic was John Mac Bride,
As ever an honest calling plied,
Or graced an honest dilly;
For John had worked in his early day,
In 'pots and pearls,' the legends say—
And kept a shop with a rich array
Of things in the soap and candle way,
In the lower part of the city!

No 'rara avis' was honest John;
(That's the Latin for 'sable swan;')
Though in one of his fancy flashes,
A wicked wag, who meant to deride,
Called honest John 'Mr. Phœnix Mac Bride,'
'Because he rose from his ashes!'

Little by little, he grew to be rich,
By saving of candle-ends and 'sich'
Till he reached at last an opulent niche,—
Not very uncommon affair;
For history quite confirms the law
Expressed in the ancient Scottish saw,
'A Mickle may come to be mair.'—*

Alas! for many ambitious beaux!
She hung the hopes upon her nose
(The figure is quite Horatian)
Until from habit the member grew
As very a hook as ever eye knew,
To the commonest observation.

A thriving tailor begged her hand,
But she gave 'the fellow' to understand,
By a violent manual action,
She perfectly scorned the best of his clan,
And reckoned the ninth of any man
An exceedingly vulgar fraction!

Another, whose sign was the golden boot,
Was mortified with a bootless suit,
In the way that was quite appalling;
For though a regular cutor by trade,
He wasn't the suitor to suit the maid,
Who cut him off with a saw—and bade
'The cobbler keep to his calling.'

(The muse must let the secret out—
There isn't the faintest shadow of doubt
That folks who oftenest sneer and flout
At 'the dirty, low mechanicals,'
Are they whose sires, by pounding their knees,
Or coining their legs, or trades like these,
Contrive to win their children ease
From poverty's galling manacles.)

A rich tobacconist comes and sues,
And thinking the lady would scarce refuse,
A man of his wealth and liberal views,
Began at once with 'If you choose—
And could you really love him'—
But the lady spoiled his speech in a huff,
With an answer rough and ready enough,
To let him know that she was up to snuff,
And altogether above him.

A young attorney of winning grace,
Was scarce allowed to 'open his face,'
Ere Miss Mac Bride had closed his case,'
With true judicial celerity;
For the lawyer was poor and 'seedy' to boot,
And to say the truly discarded his suit,
Is merely a double verity!

The last of those who came to court,
Was a lively beau, of the dapper sort,
Without any visible means of support'—
A crime by no means flagrant
In one who wears an elegant coat,
Or the very point on which they vote
A ragged fellow a 'vagrant.'

A courtly fellow was Dapper Jim,
Sleek and supple, and tail end trim,
And smooth of tongue as neat of limb;
And mangre his meagre pocket,
You'd say from the glittering tales he told,
That Jim had slept in a cradle of gold,
With Fortunatus to rock it!

Now Dapper Jim his courtship plied,
I wish the fact could be denied,)
With an eye to the purse of old Mac Bride,
And really 'nothing shorter!'
For, his said to himself, in his greedy lust,
'Whenever he dies—as die he must,
He's sure to 'come down with his dust,'
In behalf of his only daughter.'

And the very magnificent Miss Mac Bride,
Half in love, and half in pride,
Quite graciously relented;
And, tossing her head, and turning her back—
No token of proper pride to lack—
To be a Bride without the 'Mac,'
With much disdain consented!

Alas that people who've got their box
Of cash beneath the best of locks,
Secure from all financial shocks,
Should stock their fancy with fancy stocks,
And madly rush upon Wall street rocks,
Without the least apology!
Alas! that people whose money affairs
Are sound, beyond all need of repairs,
Should ever tempt the hubs and bears
Of mammon's fierce zoology!

Old John Mac Bride, one fatal day,
Became the unresisting prey
Of Fortune's undertakers;
And staking all on a single die,
His laundered pack went high and dry
Among the brokers and breakers!

All his trade again, in the very shop
Where, years before, he 'set it drop,
He follows his ancient calling—
Cheerily, too, in poverty's spite,
And sleeping quite as sound at night,
As when, at fortune's giddy height,
He used to wake with a dizzy fright,
From a dismal dream of falling.

But alas for the haughty Miss Mac Bride,
'Twas such a shock to her precious pride!
She could'nt recover although she tried
Her jaded spirits to rally;
'Twas a dreadful change in human affairs,
From a place 'Up-town,' to a nook 'Up-stairs,'
From an Avenue down to an Alley!

'Twas little condolence she had—God wot—
From her 'troops of friends,' who had'nt forgot
The airs she used to borrow;
They had civil phrases enough, but yet
'Twas plain to see their 'deepest regret'
Was a different thing from a sorrow!

They own it could'nt have well been worse
To go from a full to an empty purse;
To expect a 'reversion,' and get a reverse,
Was truly a dismal feature!
But it wasn't strange—they whispered—at all!
That the Summer of Pride should have its fall,
Was quite according to nature!

And one of those who make a pun,
As if it were quite legitimate fun
To be blazing away at every one
With a regular, double loaded gun—
Remark'd that moral transgression
Always brings retributive stings
To candle-makers, as well as kings;
For making light of cereous things,
Was a very wicked profession!

And vulgar people—the saucy churchs—
Inquired about 'the price of Pearls;'
And mock'd at her situation;
'She wasn't ruined'—they ventured to hope—
Because she was poor, she need'nt mope—
Few people were better off for soap,
And that was a consolation!

* 'Mickle wi' thrift may chance to be mair.' Scotch Proverb. [We fancy the poet here alludes to Andrew H. Mickle, a worthy tobacconist, who was recently Mayor of New rk.]

And to make her cup of woe run over,
Her elegant, ardent, plighted lover
Was the very first to forsake her;
'He quite regretted the step, 'twas true—
The lady had pride enough 'for two,'
But that alone would never do
To quiet the butcher and baker!'

And now the unhappy Miss Mac Bride—
The merest ghost of her early pride—
Bewails her lonely position;
Cramp'd in the very narrowest niche,
Above the poor, and below the rich—
Was ever a worse condition?

MORAL.

Because you flourish in wordly affairs,
Don't be haughty and put on airs,
With insolent pride of station!
Don't be proud and turn up your nose,
But learn for the sake of your mind's repose,
That wealth's a bubble that comes—and goes!
And that all Proud Flesh, wherever it grows,
Is subject to irritation.

THE Hydromagen is a valuable discovery, for protecting the feet from damp or cold, and therefore a preventative of many Lung Diseases, and promoting warmth. The Hydromagen is a Cork sole, and worn next to the foot or stocking. Its character is a powerful antidote to dampness.

For gentlemen it will be found agreeable, warm, and healthy, to wear in the coldest or rainiest weather, as the foot cannot become wet if the Hydromagen be inserted. Ladies may wear the lightest kid dress shoes in the most inclement weather with impunity, which Consumptives, so prevalent in this variable climate of our country, may better avail themselves of. They are entirely free from dampness, and by keeping the feet so preserve a very healthy temperature, and besides, are not dangerous to wear in the most inclement weather, like india rubbers. Whilst they cause the feet to appear extremely large, the Hydromagen being a thin slice of cork prepared, peculiarly adapted, does not increase the size of the foot, or cause the shoe to appear unbody. The children the most delicate, as they may engage in their usual sports, and healthy effects. Their expense is slight as to scarce need mention; besides, those who attend to it will find their yearly doctor's bills much curtailed thereby.

As the Hydromagen is becoming more known, its sale is increased to an almost incredible extent. Last year in London, Manchester, Birmingham, Liverpool, Glasgow, Dublin, Paris, Antwerp, Harlem, and Berlin, our sales reached 81,732,150 pairs of Cork Soles. This year the number will far surpass that.

Ask the Patentee's opinion of the Soles as a preventative for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Men's size, per pair,	37 cents.
Ladies' sizes, per pair,	25 cents.
Boy's and Misses' sizes per pair	25 cents.

NOTICE.—From the Retail Prices we make a very liberal allowance to Jobbers and Wholesalers, so that any storekeeper may make a fine profit on their sale, while they are an article that may be kept in any store, among any class of goods.

Carter's Spanish Mixture.

The Great Purifier of the Blood!

Not a particle of Mercury in it.

An infallible Remedy for Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Blotches, Boils, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ring Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and Pain of the Bones and Joints, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Disorders, Lumbago, Spinal Complaints, and all Diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Imprudence in Life, or Impurity of the Blood.

This valuable Medicine, which has become for the number of extraordinary cures effected through its agency, has impelled the proprietors, at the urgent request of their friends, to offer it to the public, which they do with the utmost confidence in its virtues and wonderful curative properties. The following certificates, selected from a large number, are however, stronger testimony than the mere word of the proprietor, and are all from gentlemen well known in their localities, and of the highest respectability, many of them residing in the city of Richmond Virginia.

E. Boyden, Esq., of the Exchange Hotel, Richmond known every where, says he has seen the Medicine called CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE administered in over a hundred cases, in nearly all the diseases of which it is recommended, with the most astonishing good results. He says it is the most extraordinary medicine he has ever seen.

Ague and Fever—great cure.—I hereby certify, that for three years I had Ague and Fever of the most violent description. I had several Physicians, took large quantities of Quinine, Mercury, and I believe all the Panics advertised, but all without any permanent relief. At last I tried CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, two bottles of which effectually cured me, and I am happy to say it have had neither Chills or Fever since. I consider it the best Tonic in the world, and the only medicine that ever reached my case. JNO. LONGDEN.

Beaver Dam, near Richmond, Va.

D. B. LICK, Esq., now in the city of Richmond, and for many years in the Post Office, has such confidence in the astonishing efficacy of CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, that he has bought upwards of 30 bottles, which he has given away to the afflicted. Mr. Lick says he has never known it to fail when taken according to directions.

Dr MINGE, a practising Physician, and formerly of the City Hotel, in the city of Richmond, says he has witnessed in a number of instances ill effects of CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE which were most curious surprising. He says in a case of Consumption, no person on the level, the good effects were wonderful indeed.

Samuel M Drinker, of the firm of Drinker & Morris Richmond was cured of Liver complaint of 6 years standing, by the use of two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

Great cure for Scrofula.—The Editors of the Richmond Republican had a servant employed in their press room cured of violent, Scrofula, combined with Rheumatism, which entirely disabled him from work. Two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture made a perfect cure of him, and the Editors, in a public notice, say they "cheerfully recommend it to all who are afflicted with any disease of the blood."

Still another cure of Scrofula.—I had a very valuable boy cured of Scrofula by Carter's Spanish Mixture, and consider it a truly valuable medicine. James M. Taylor, Conductor on the R. F. & P. R. R. Co., Richmond Va.

Salt Rheum of 20 years Standing Cured.

Mr. John Thomasson, residing in the city of Richmond, was cured by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, of Salt Rheum, which he had nearly 20 years, and which all the physicians of the city could not cure.

Mr. Thompson is a well known merchant in the city of Richmond, Va., and his cure is most remarkable.

Wm. A. Matthews, of Richmond, Va., had a servant cured of Syphilis, in the worst form, by Carter's Spanish Mixture. He says he cheerfully recommends it, and considers it an invaluable medicine.

Richard E. West, of Richmond was cured by of Scrofula, and what Physicians called confirmed Consumption, by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

Edwin Burton, Commissioner of the Revenue, says he has seen the good effects of Carter's Spanish Mixture in a number of Syphilitic cases, and says it is a perfect cure for that horrible disease.

Wm. E. Harwood, of Richmond, Va., cured of Old Sores and Ulcerwash disabled him from walking.—Took a few bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, and was enabled to walk without a crutch, in a short time permanently cured.

TESTIMONY OF SAMUEL PARSONS.

A Cure of Distressing Liver Complaint of Five Years' Standing.

CERTIFIED TO BY DR. WILSTACH.

LAFAYETTE, IND., Feb. 21, 1854.

This is to certify that for the last five years of my life I have been severely afflicted with Liver Complaint. To describe all of my horrible feelings would be out of my power. I was troubled with a severe pain in my left side, with sharp pains under my shoulder blade. My sleep was disturbed, unrefreshing, accompanied by nightmare. After eating, I had sever at pain in my stomach, often vomiting up my food.—My bowels were always deranged, and often very sore. My appetite was variable, sometimes a voracious craving for food; at other times an entire loss of appetite, dizziness in the head, a dull drowsy languor, accompanied by a ringing noise in the ears. Urine was high colored, and very scanty. Limbs were numb and cold. Sometimes burning, great dejection of spirits. My complexion assumed a yellow, cadaverous hue. My whole system was greatly debilitated. I have now given a list of the most skilful physicians, without any relief, and despaired of ever obtaining relief. But, by the use of Dr. Wilstach, of Lafayette, I made use of Curtis's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and before the use of two bottles of the medicine, all of the above distressing symptoms have been removed, and I am now in as perfect a state of health as I have ever enjoyed. In fact, the medicine has effected a perfect cure, and I feel it a duty to recommend it to all afflicted with any of the above symptoms.

[Signed] SAMUEL PARSONS.

LAWRENCE TP., Tippecanoe co., Ind.

Mr. Samuel Parsons is one of our oldest and most reliable citizens, and his statement is entitled to entire confidence. I consider that the cure in his case was effected solely by 'Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla,' and I regard it as one of the most extraordinary cures that has come under my observation.

C. F. WILSTACH.

Also Cured by the use of Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla:

STOFF POWSSIFF, YANKNACKO CO.,

Indiana, July 4th, 1853.

Park—Dear Sir—It is with great pleasure I write about the very happy effects of your 'Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla,' upon my daughter, who has been suffering under that dreadful disease of Erysipelas, with which she was attacked in 1848, and she was attended by some of our most skilful physicians for over eight months persevertingly, without any beneficial effect whatever. She became reduced to a perfect skeleton. She had ulcers from her shoulder to her knees, which continually discharged offensive matter. Her physicians pronounced her case hopeless, and beyond the reach of medicine. My neighbor and myself thought her dissolution near at hand. One of my neighbors insisted on my trying 'Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla,' as a last resort, for as all of our physicians had given her up, there could be no detriment in it. I consented to do so more from restless desire to do something for my daughter than the least, than from any hope of her getting relief. So I commenced using the medicine according to directions, and to my great astonishment, she commenced improving, and before she used eight bottles she was able to walk out. She used in all twelve bottles of Dr Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla,' which restored her to perfect health, in Dec 1852. She is now entirely free from any vestige of the complaint.

I most earnestly recommend it to every person suffering under any similar disease.

Yours truly, D. L. MARTIN.

I do hereby certify, that my father's statement of my late illness is not by any means exaggerated. My health now perfect, which I ascribe wholly to the use of Dr Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla.

Dr. Hunter's Medical Manual and hand book for the Afflicted. Contai ing an outline of the origin, progress, treatment and cure of every form of disease, contracted by promiscuous sexual intercourse by self abuse, or by sexual excess, with advice for their prevention, written in a similar style avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of decency, from the result of some twenty year experience, exclusively devoted to the cure of diseases of a delicate or private nature.

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above diseases, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague.

Testimony of the Professor of Obstetrics in Penn. Col lege, Philadelphia — Dr. Hunter's Medical Manual.— The author of this work unlike the majority of those works who advertise to cure the disease of which it treats, is a graduate of one of the best Colleges in the United States. It affords me pleasure to recommend him to the unfortunate, or to the victims of malpractice, as a successful and experienced practitioner, in whose honor and integrity they may place the greatest confidence.

JOSEPH LONGSHORE, M. D.

From A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn, University Philadelphia.—It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the MEDICAL MANUAL. Numerous cases of Diseases of the Genital Organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health, in some instances where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid,—in the treatmedt of Seminal weekness, or disarrange ment of the functions produced by SELF ABUSE, or Ex less of venery. I do not know his superior in the pro ession. I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as a kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscretions, to recommend him as one in whose prosession I scill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.

ALFRED WOODWARD, M.D

"This is, without exception, the most comprehensiv one intelligible work published on the class of diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all technical terms, it al arasses itself in the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent, however fastidi us, can object in placing it in the hand of his sons — This author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and with too little hesita to puff, and too little presumption to impose, he offered to the world at the merely nominal price of 25 s offered to the world at the merely nominal price of 25 s cents, the fruits of some twenty years most successful practice."—Herald.

No person should be without the knowl edge imparted in this invaluable work. It would save years of pain, mortification and sorrow to the youthful under their charge.—People's Advocate.

A Presbyterian clergyman in Ohio, in writing o Hunter's Medical Manual, says: 'Thousand upon thousands of our youth, by evil example and the pollu tion of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollution without realizing the sin and fearful consequence upon themselves and their posterity. The constitutions of thousands, who are raising families, have been enfeebled, if not broken down, and they do not know the cause or the cure. Anything that can be done so to enlighten and influence the public mind as to check, and ultimately to remove this wide-spread and de of human wretchedness, would confer the greatest blessing next to the religion of Jesus Christ, on the present and coming generations. Intemperance, (or the use of intoxicating drinks,) though it has slai hundreds up on thousands, is not a greater scourge to the human race. Accept my thanks on behalf of the afflicted, and believe me, your co-worker in the good work you are so actively engaged in.

A CURE FOR ALL!!!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

Citizens of the Union.—

You have done me the honour as with one voice, from one end of the Union to the other, to stamp the character of my Ointment with your approbation. It is scarcely two years since I made it known among you, and already it has obtained more celebrity than any other Medicine in so short a period.

THOMAS HOLLOWAY,
38, Corner of Ann and Nassau streets, New York.

ASTONISHING CURE OF SORE LEGS, AFTER NINE YEARS STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. J. Langley, of Huntsville, Yadkin county, North Carolina, U. S., dated November 1st, 1853.

READ HIS OWN WORDS.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Sir.—It is not my wish to become notorious, neither is the letter written for the mere sake of writing, but to say, that your Ointment cured me of one of the most dreadful cutaneous diseases that flesh is heir to, and which was considered by all who knew me, to be entirely beyond the reach of medicine. For nine years I was afflicted with one of the most painful and troublesome sore legs that ever fell to the lot of man; and after trying every medicine I had ever heard of, I resigned in despair all hope of being cured; but a friend brought me a couple of large pots of your Ointment, which caused the sores on my legs to heal, and I entirely regained my health to my agreeable surprise and delight, and to the astonishment of my friends. (Signed)

W. J. LANGLEY.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A BAD BREAST, WHEN NEARLY AT THE POINT OF DEATH.

Copy of a letter from Mr. R. Durant, New Orleans November 9th, 1853

To Professor HOLLOWAY, 38, Corner of Ann and Nassau streets, N. Y.

Dear Sir.—It is with heartfelt gratitude I have informed you that by the use of your Ointment and Pills the life of my wife has been saved. For seven year she had a bad breast, with ten running wounds, (no of a cancerous nature.) I was told that nothing could save her; she was then induced to use your Ointment and Pills, when in the short space of three months they effected a perfect cure, to the astonishment of all who knew us. We obtained your Medicines from Messrs. Wright & Co., 61 Chartre street, New Orleans. I read this from 'Hotel des Princes,' Paris, although, I had written it at New Orleans, before we finally left, at that time, not knowing your address at New York.

(Signed) R. DURANT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases.—

Bad Legs	Piles
Bad Breast	Rheumatism
Burns	Salt Rheum
Bunions	Scalds
Chilblains	Sore Nipples
Chapped hand	Sore-throats
Contracted and Stiff Joints	Skin diseases
Fistulas	Scurvy
Gout	Sore heads
Grandular Swellings	Ulcers
Lumbago	Wounds

WE are often asked why we sell—FURNITURE so much cheaper than other dealers in the article. For the benefit of all we will explain, It is the impression at home an keep every thing, and persons wishing an out-fit for house keeping, call on us and find in our store-rooms almost every article necessary for house keeping from a rolling pin up to a sugar cured ham. Hardware, spices, &c., &c. Then they want FURNITURE, consequently, we have been induced to keep always on hand a well selected stock of plain FURNETTRE, not calculating from the proceeds of profits, but from the fact that a complete out fit can be purchased at our house for house keeping, relieves the purchase, from much trouble and many small bills—have for the accommodating of our customers recently enlarged our furniture rooms, and can now, and will in future be able to offer inducements to all wishing to purchase—provided lowest figures be an inducement.

It would be an endless undertaking to furnish a complete catalogue of the articles we offer for sale in addition to FURNITURE, but feeling a desire to benefit the public, we venture to call attention to a very few, as follows:

The Chain Pump.

Decidedly the cheapest and most durable pump ever invented, and warranted to perform well when put up by us. We are prepared to furnish Iron, Zink, or Wood, at very low prices.

Atmospheric and Suction Pump.

This description of pump is generally well known they perform satisfactorily in shallow wells or cisterns, but, their liability to freeze render them troublesome.

The Suction and Force Pump.

A most excellent pump upon the same principles of the Atmospheric pump, capable of lifting water thirty three feet, and then forcing it fifty or sixty feet, from a short leather hose, but still this pump is also liable to freeze and burst unless the valve is opened by elevating the lever after pumping.

Earthen Tubes.

A new invention for sewers and drains, costing only six cents per foot—easily put down and very durable, certainly the best and cheapest drain ever invented.

A Large Supply of

METALLIC BURIAL CASES

of all sizes, from twenty two inches to 7 feet long, ornamental and plain finish, covered with fine cloth and fringe, &c., silver mounted and bronzed.

Having first introduced these cases in our city, proven by trial to be most suitably adapted for preserving the mortal remains—the decided preference given them over the old fashioned wooden box. The increased demand in our city, county and adjoining counties has induced us to purchase a first rate Hearse, which together with any number of Carriages ordered—will attend all funeral occasions desired. We have also a large lot of wooden boxes to enclose the Metalic cases, which we will furnish at from $1 for small and $3 for largest size, and in every instance when we furnish Burial cases, boxes at hacks, we warrant the bills satisfactory, and no extortion.
